The Hayter Family

A precious one from us is gone
a voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home
which never can be filled.
And often a lonely heartache,
with many a silent tear.
But always a beautiful memory
of the one we loved so dear

I Thess 4:13

Life is filled with experiences that leaves us, often, with More Questions than Answers.

People of Faith, that is believers, however, can find great comfort in God's Word and for such times of uncertainty there Are Answers.

Death is Not usually A welcomed visitor and No matter how frequent we encounter it, we are Not Comfortable Not At ease, Not "understanding" And yet Gods word comforts us:

In our Lesson John 11:11

- Our Friend sleepeth →
- Thy brother shall Rise Again →
- Who lives and believes in me, shall never die.

One perennial question bothering to the Human family —

Why do bad things happen to good people. Why do the Righteous suffer? Why can't those who deserve negatives have All the negatives, leaving All positives to the "positive people," the good people. Why, it seems, do the good die young →

Romans: 8:18

"The sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us."

I Cor 13:12

"For now we see through a glass darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as I am known."

Rev 14:12-13

Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus

(7) And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.
